

Rock Garden Idea #1:

Okay, so we have confirmed that you are interested in some recruiting ideas. Excellent! That means there are no doubt several others out there too.

And you almost certainly have a few pretty good ideas of your own, so take a minute today and drop down to the bottom of the Recruiting-Outreach page and click on the link that reads: “LEAVE YOUR INPUT HERE”. Your input doesn't have to be eloquent – our brilliant editing staff will see to the final wording for you – but just an idea or a good Kairos recruiting experience that you have had up to this point.

Naturally, we won't be able to publish them all, but we can't all get started until . . . we all get started!

So thanks in advance for considering adding something today. Your idea will soon be joined by many more that will come back and be a blessing to you next time.

And isn't that absolutely the Kairos experience? We add our time and energy to the community cause and end up receive more than we ever gave.

God is good!
